

Do You Know Your Time Style?

Check Yourself Do You Have a Category One or Category Two Time Style?

1. Do you have any unopened mail in your office or home that is older than three days?
Yes_____ No_____
2. Is there an article of clothing somewhere in your home that is in a temporary parking place like the floor, a pile in your closet, or tossed across a chair?
Yes_____ No_____
3. During the last week, have you had trouble concentrating because there are so many things running through your mind?
Yes_____ No_____
4. If you were able to add up all the time you've spent searching for objects during the past week—whether for keys, paperwork, clothing, or anything else—would it total more than 30 minutes?
Yes_____ No_____
5. During the last week, have you been late to one or more appointments or commitments?
Yes_____ No_____
6. When on the phone during the last week, have you said even once, "Wait a moment, I have to get something to write with"? Include calls on your cell phone.
Yes_____ No_____

7. During the last week, has someone had to ask you for the same thing more than once?

Yes_____ No_____

8. During the last month, have you found yourself thinking or saying even once that you just spent some time watching something terrible on television?

Yes_____ No_____

9. During the last month, have you forgotten the birthday of a close friend or family member?

Yes_____ No_____

10. Have you at some point during the last month worn any clothes out of your dirty clothes hamper or from a pile of dirty clothes on the floor?

Yes_____ No_____

Now count the number of times you checked yes.

If you checked yes to two or more questions, you can consider yourself a Category Two person in terms of your time. You are ready for the special time tools you will find in this book.

If you checked yes to only one question, you can get by with a few traditional time tools. However, when you pick a new time tool that fits you, you are living up to the old saying, "The rich get richer."
